User Groups

If you are a forum user registered after 02/2016 or someone that is not registered on the forum, you can register on the wiki and will automatically be granted the User status (edit rights only). When we see you are active on the wiki and that you are not a troll/spammer/bot, you will be placed in the Tech group. An additional probation period and proof of activity is necessary to be in the Publisher group.

If you got any inquiry or question, you can register on the ff6hacking forum and send a private message to Gi Nattak. Alternatively, you can write to any other Forum Team member through private message or email but you message might take longer to be responded.
