

Thank you!

FF3us / FF6 documentation and hacking has been going on for almost 20 years. The state of the game today being the most documented on SNES and having the most editors to make mods is due to the work of dozens of people since the late 90's / early 2000's. This is a list of significant people that have passed in the scene or are still part of it and some people that helped greatly on the wiki or ff6hacking.com in general. For those that are making mods and are not included here, your presence is also a part of what keep the FF6 communities going on.

So thank you all for the editors, bufixes, patches, assembly documentation, game documentation, specialized FAQs, debuggers, SNES documentation, help on different forums and wiki building.
